A Peaceful Jihad Sep 22 2019 Based on extensive ethnographic research, this book examines how the Islamic community in Java, Indonesia, is actively negotiating both modernity and tradition in the contexts of nation-building, globalisation, and a supposed clash of civilizations. The pesantren community, so-called because it is centered around an educational institution called the pesantren, uses education as a central arena for dealing with globalization and the construction and maintenance of an Indonesian Islamic identity. However, the community's efforts to wrestle with these issues extend beyond education into the public sphere in general and specifically in the area of leadership and politics. The case material is used to understand Muslim strategies and responses to civilizational contact and conflict. Scholars, educated readers, and advanced undergraduates interested in Islam, religious education, the construction of religious identity in the context of national politics and globalization will find this work useful.

Islam in the Indonesian World Sep 03 2020 The early history of Islam in Indonesian world is bewilderingly complex, not only in the context of the spread of Islam in the area, but also in the terms of its institutional formation. This book, therefore, discusses such themes as the early introduction of Islam to the Indonesian archipelago, the development of Islamic learning, educational, and legal institutions. Not least important, the book also reveals the religious, intellectual and political relations between Islam in the archipelago with that of the Arabian world “Professor Azyumardi Azra is a brilliant authority in Islam in Indonesia. No one interested in Indonesian Islam can afford to be without this book.” —Professor Dr. M.C. Ricklefs Department of History National University of Singapore Author of acclaimed book, A History of Modern Indonesia since c. 1200 (third edition, 2002) “This well researched book should be a required reading for anyone who would like to comprehend the dynamic of Islam in Indonesian and in Southeast Asia as a whole.” —Professor DR. Taufik Abdullah Sejarahwan and member of Akademi Ilmu Pengetahuan Indonesia (AIPI) [Mizan, Pustaka, Religion, Islam, Refrention]

Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures Apr 10 2021 This book brings together fascinating discussions of the way in which Muslim and Jewish beliefs and practices are represented in modern literary texts of poetry, fiction and drama. The chapters collected here consider elements of the expression of Judaism and Islam in modern literature. Key topics such as religious ideas and teachings, aspects of mysticism, the tenets of religion, uses made of sacred texts, religion and popular culture and reflections of religious controversies are covered. While there is an embodied comparative element to the chapters, the essays are not confined by comparisons and cover a wide range of the literary expression of religious issues. With contributions from a group of international scholars, all of whom are experts in the field and each of whom has brought a particular perspective to the topic, this book is a significant contribution to, and will stimulate further research on, the various literatures treated, reflection on comparative work on these two cultural traditions, and new interest in literary expressions of religion and religiousness in general.

The Madrasa in Asia Apr 29 2020 Summary: "Since the rise of the Taliban and Al Qaeda, the traditional Islamic schools known as the madrasa have frequently been portrayed as hotbeds of terrorism. For much longer, the madrasa has been considered by some as a backward and petrified impediment to social progress. However, for an important segment of the poor Muslim populations of Asia, madrasas constitute the only accessible form of education. This volume presents an overview of the madrasas in countries such as China, Indonesia, Malaysia, India and Pakistan."--Publisher description.

Truth from Trash Oct 24 2019 Chris Thornton makes the compelling claim that learning is not a passive discovery operation but an active process involving creativity on the part of the learner. This study of learning in autonomous agents offers a bracing intellectual adventure. Chris Thornton makes the compelling claim that learning is not a passive discovery operation but an active process involving creativity on the part of the learner. Although theorists of machine learning tell us that all learning methods contribute some form of bias and thus involve a degree of creativity, Thornton carries the idea much further. He describes an incremental process, recursive relational learning, in which the results of one learning step serve as the basis for the next. Very high-level recodings are then substantially the creative artifacts of the learner's own processing. Lower-level recodings are more "objective" in that their properties are more severely constrained by the source data. Thornton sees consciousness as a process at the outer fringe of relational learning, just prior to the onset of creativity. According to this view, we cannot assume consciousness to be an exclusively human phenomenon, but rather the expected feature of any cognitive mechanism able to engage in extended flights of relational learning. Thornton presents key background material in an entertaining manner, using extensive mental imagery and a minimum of mathematics. Anecdotes and dialogue add to the text's informality.

Islamic Education in Indonesia and Malaysia Oct 04 2020 Despite their close geographic and cultural ties, Indonesia and Malaysia have dramatically different Islamic education, with that in Indonesia being relatively decentralized and discursively diverse, while that in Malaysia is centralized and discursively restricted. The book explores the nature of the Islamic education systems in Indonesia and Malaysia and the different approaches taken by these states in managing these systems. The book argues that the post-colonial state in Malaysia has been more successful in centralising its control over Islamic education, and more concerned with promoting a restrictive orthodoxy, compared to the post-colonial state in Indonesia. This is due to three factors: the ideological makeup of the state institutions that oversee Islamic education; patterns of societal Islamisation that have prompted different responses from the states; and control of resources by the central government that influences centre-periphery relations. Informed by the theoretical works of state-in-society relations and historical institutionalism, this book shows that the three aforementioned factors can help a state to minimize influence from the society and exert its dominance, in this case by centralising control over Islamic education.

Specifically, they help us understand the markedly different landscapes of Islamic education in Malaysia and Indonesia. It will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies, Asian Education and Comparative Education.

The New Santri Jan 07 2021 Just like the Gutenberg revolution in the fifteenth century, which led to the emergence of non-conventional religious authority in the Christian world, the current information technology revolution, particularly through mediums such as Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, and Twitter, has triggered the re-construction and decentralization of religious authority in Islam. New santri (pious individuals) and preachers emerged from the non-conventional religious educational system. They not only challenged the traditional authorities, but also redefine and re-conceptualize old religious terminologies, such as hijra and wasatiyya. This book explores the dynamics of religious authority in Indonesia with special attention to the challenges from the “new santri”. It is a rich and important book on religion. I recommend students of religion in Indonesia and other countries to read it. Ahmad Syafi’i Maarif Professor Emeritus of History at Yogyakarta State University An important and timely volume that addresses the changing nature of Islamic leadership in the world’s most popular Muslim country. This book debunks many (mis)perceptions that Indonesia Islam is monolithic. It also redefines dominant characterization of Islam by Orientalist scholars, such as santri and abangan Muslims. Haedar Nashir Chairman of Muhammadiyah This edited volume evaluates the new development of Islamic scholarship and authority in Indonesia. Things have changed significantly in recent times that make many observers and researchers wondering: has Indonesia moved from traditional authorities, mainstream Islamic organizations, and the established scholarship to the new actors, movements and platforms? Has the change occurs owing to the democratization and political reforms that took place in the last twenty years or are there other factors we need to take into account? The contributors in this book provide possible answers from many different areas and perspectives. It's a must-read! Nadirsyah Hosen Monash University, Australia

Kaya Gagasan Miskin Kesulitan Sep 27 2022 Hidup pada dasarnya adalah tantangan. Tidak ada kehidupan manakala tidak ada tantangan. Tantangan adalah juga ciri kehidupan. Eksistensi hidup ada pada tantangan tersebut. Tantangan juga adalah masalah. Tanda suatu kehidupan adalah pada adanya masalah. Adanya masalah berarti adanya kehidupan. Oleh karena itu, masalah tidak harus dihindari melainkan dihadapi. Masalah itu pada dasarnya juga perubahan dan perubahan tersebut merupakan hidup itu sendiri. Tidak mungkin disebut hidup jikalau tidak ada perubahan. Perubahan merupakan tanda bagi kehidupan. Berani hidup berarti berani juga berubah. Berdasarkan informasi kehidupan masyarakat masa lalu, kehidupan bukan berarti diam. Diam dapat berarti tidak eksis. Eksis ada pada hidup yang berubah-ubah. Masyarakat yang statis cenderung disebut sebagai masyarakat yang tidak eksis. Eksistensi manusia dan masyarakat ada pada perubahan. Perubahan itu dapat terjadi karena adanya gagasan. Gagasan yang selalu muncul mengakibatkan banyak perubahan. Gagasan muncul dapat dikarenakan untuk menghadapi tantangan. Akan tetapi munculnya suatu gagasan dapat juga karena menghadirkan tantangan itu sendiri. Oleh karena itu gagasan menjadi sentral bagi wujudnya perubahan.

The Great Theft Aug 14 2021 Despite President George W. Bush's assurances that Islam is a peaceful religion and that all good Muslims hunger for democracy, confusion persists and far too many Westerners remain convinced that Muslims and terrorists are synonymous. In the aftermath of the attacks of 9/11, the subsequent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, and the recent bombings in London, an unprecedented amount of attention has been directed toward Islam and the Muslim world. Yet, even with this increased scrutiny, most of the public discourse regarding Islam revolves around the actions of extremist factions such as the Wahhabis and al-Qa'ida. But what of the Islam we don't hear about? As the second-largest and fastest-growing religion in the world, Islam is deemed by more than a billion Muslims to be a source of serenity and spiritual peace, and a touchstone for moral and ethical guidance. While extremists have an impact upon the religion that is wildly disproportionate to their numbers, moderates constitute the majority of Muslims worldwide. It is this rift between the quiet voice of the moderates and the deafening statements of the extremists that threatens the future of the faith. In The Great Theft, Khaled Abou El Fadl, one of the world's preeminent Islamic scholars, argues that Islam is currently passing through a transformative period no less dramatic than the movements that swept through Europe during the Reformation. At this critical juncture there are two completely opposed worldviews within Islam competing to define this great world religion. The stakes have never been higher, and the future of the Muslim world hangs in the balance. Drawing on the rich tradition of Islamic history and law, The Great Theft is an impassioned defense of Islam against the encroaching power of the extremists. As an accomplished Islamic jurist, Abou El Fadl roots his arguments in long-standing historical legal debates and delineates point by point the beliefs and practices of moderate Muslims, distinguishing these tenets from the corrupting influences of the extremists. From the role of women in Islam to the nature of jihad, from democracy and human rights to terrorism and warfare, Abou El Fadl builds a vital vision for a moderate Islam. At long last, the great majority of Muslims who oppose extremism have a desperately needed voice to help reclaim Islam's great moral tradition.

MANAJEMEN PENDIDIKAN TERPADU PONDOK PESANTREN DAN PERGURUAN TINGGI (STUDI MULTISITUS DI MA'HAD DALWA BANGIL DAN PONDOK NGALAH PURWOSARI PASURUAN) Jul 25 2022 Pondok pesantren merupakan salah satu jenis pendidikan Islam khas Indonesia yang didirikan oleh masyarakat. Dalam perkembangannya, sebagian pondok pesantren

berupaya merespon tuntutan dan perkembangan zaman dengan melakukan modernisasi dengan mendirikan lembaga-lembaga pendidikan formal mulai dari tingkat PAUD sampai perguruan tinggi, sedangkan sebagian lainnya tetap bertahan dengan karakteristiknya yang asli sebagai lembaga pendidikan tafaqqh fi al-din (pendalaman agama) yang hanya fokus pada penguasaan kitab-kitab kuning. Pondok pesantren yang berupaya memadukan keduanya inilah yang kemudian populer dengan sebutan pondok pesantren terpadu. Di antara pondok pesantren yang seperti itu adalah PP Darullughah Wadda'wah Bangil atau yang biasa dikenal dengan Ma'had Dalwa dan PP Ngalah Purwosari Pasuruan atau yang biasa dikenal dengan Pondok Ngalah. Oleh karena itu, menarik untuk diteliti lebih lanjut guna menganalisis dan menemukan konsep maupun model pendidikan terpadu pondok pesantren dan perguruan tinggi di kedua tempat tersebut dan implikasinya terhadap peningkatan mutu lulusannya. Penelitian ini menggunakan pendekatan kualitatif dengan rancangan penelitian multisitus, proses pengumpulan data dan analisis datanya dilakukan dalam dua tahap yaitu analisis data situs tunggal yaitu situs I dan situs II yang masing-masing terdiri dari langkah-langkah sebagai berikut: (1) data reduction (2) data display (3) verification/ conclusion. Setelah itu dilakukan analisis lintas situs sehingga diperoleh temuan penelitian substantifnya. Pada bagian pembahasan, temuan tersebut didialogkan dengan teori dan temuan sebelumnya sehingga melahirkan temuan formalnya. Pada akhirnya, penelitian ini berkesimpulan bahwa konsep pendidikan terpadu yang digagas oleh Ma'had Dalwa Bangil dan Pondok Ngalah Purwosari terdiri dari dua macam konsep yaitu konsep pendidikan terpadu “sistemik” dan “organik”. Yang sistemik berupa gagasan yang ingin memadukan seluruh komponen dalam sistem pendidikan yang ada di kedua lembaga tersebut mulai dari perpaduan tenaga pendidik dan kependidikannya, peserta didiknya, kurikulumnya, dan sarana dan prasarannya, sedangkan yang organik ingin memadukan aspek tata nilai kepesantrenannya yang menjadi ruh dari pendidikan di pondok pesantren itu sendiri dengan tata nilai dan budaya akademik di perguruan tingginya. Kedua konsep pendidikan terpadu tersebut melahirkan dua model pendidikan terpadu yaitu “model struktural” dan “model kultural”. Model struktural adalah model sintesis sistemik dengan memanfaatkan struktur kelebagaannya, sedangkan model kultural adalah model sintesis organik dengan penciptaan kultur atau budaya yang kondusif bagi proses internalisasi dan reaktualisasi nilai-nilai spiritualitas dan intelektualitas. Pada akhirnya, kedua model tersebut telah berimplikasi pada peningkatan mutu lulusannya baik pada aspek pengetahuan, sikap, maupun keterampilannya.

The Admonitions of Seh Bari Feb 26 2020 The Javanese text being published here is not appearing in print for the first time: more than half a century ago it was published by B.J.O. Schrieke in his doctor's thesis Ret Boek van Bonang ("The Book of Bonang") (1916). In Schrieke's work, however, the emphasis fell on the historical introduction to the text rather than on the text itself, the edition of which is not free of shortcomings. Moreover, the analysis of the contents of the text appended to it could not make up for a complete translation. For the lack of a new edition and complete translation of this old and important text has not been made before now is due to the small number of scholars of Javanese - and the even smaller number of those among them who concern themselves with the Muslim works of Javanese literature. In short, it is the pioneering character which the study of Indonesian literatures still largely possesses that has caused people to be contented with preliminary surveys of this extensive field of study. It is true that a number of welcome milestones have been erected, but it can in no way be said that the charting of the whole field is yet complete. After the first publication of a text and summary of its contents people are only too readily inclined to proceed to other projects, more attractive because of their novelty.

The Highly Effective Teacher Dec 18 2021 What are the secrets to unlocking student success? And what can teachers do to get better at helping students develop deep understanding of content, attain higher-order thinking skills, and become secure, confident, and capable learners? In this book, teacher and professor Jeff Marshall showcases how teaching with intentionality answers these questions. Specifically, he introduces the Teacher Intentionality Practice Scale (TIPS), a framework for both supporting and measuring effective teaching. Taken together, the framework's seven TIPs provide a research-based, classroom-tested guide to help teachers * create coherent, connected lessons; * use strategies and resources, including technology, that truly enhance learning; * organize a safe, respectful learning environment; * develop challenging and rigorous learning experiences; * promote interactive, thoughtful learning; * nurture a creative, problem-solving classroom culture; and * deliver feedback and formative assessment that inform teaching and learning. Marshall's needs-assessment instrument can help teachers, working independently or in a cohort, determine the best starting point for improving their practice. Practical, straightforward rubrics for each TIP describe the various levels of teacher proficiency. Based on his own teaching experience and observations in hundreds of classrooms, Marshall also offers action tips for each framework component and a list of resources for further study. Written for teachers and leaders at all levels and in all content areas, The Highly Effective Teacher is a guidebook for thoughtful, intentional teaching with one goal: success for all students, in every classroom.

Handbook of Translation Studies Aug 22 2019 As a meaningful manifestation of how institutionalized the discipline has become, the new Handbook of Translation Studies is most welcome. It joins the other signs of maturation such as Summer Schools, the development of academic curricula, historical surveys, journals, book series, textbooks, terminologies, bibliographies and encyclopedias. The HTS aims at disseminating knowledge about translation and interpreting and providing easy access to a large range of topics, traditions, and methods to a relatively broad audience: not only students who often adamantly prefer such user-friendliness, researchers and lecturers in Translation Studies, Translation & Interpreting professionals; but also scholars and experts from other disciplines (among which linguistics, sociology, history, psychology). In addition the HTS addresses any of those with a professional or personal interest in the problems of translation, interpreting, localization, editing, etc., such as communication specialists, journalists, literary critics, editors, public servants, business managers, (intercultural) organization specialists, media specialists, marketing professionals. Moreover, The HTS offers added value. First of all, it is the first Handbook with this scope in Translation Studies that has both a print edition and an online version. The advantages of an online version are obvious: it is more flexible and accessible, and in addition, the entries can be regularly revised and updated. The Handbook is variously searchable: by article, by author, by subject. A second benefit is the interconnection with the selection and organization principles of the online Translation Studies Bibliography (TSB). The taxonomy of the TSB has been partly applied to the selection of entries for the HTS. Moreover, many items in the reference lists are hyperlinked to the TSB, where the user can find an abstract of a publication. All articles (between 500 and 6000 words) are written by specialists in the different subfields and are peer-reviewed. Last but not least, the usability, accessibility and flexibility of the HTS depend on the commitment of people who agree that Translation Studies does matter. All users are therefore invited to share their feedback. Any questions, remarks and suggestions for improvement can be sent to the editorial team at hts@lessius.eu.

Educational Policy and the Politics of Change Mar 29 2020 Governments around the world are trying to come to terms with new technologies, new social movements and a changing global economy. As a result, educational policy finds itself at the centre of a major political struggle between those who see it only for its instrumental outcomes and those who see its potential for human emancipation. This book is a successor to the best-selling Understanding Schooling (1988). It provides a readable account of how educational policies are developed by the state in response to broader social, cultural, economic and political changes which are taking place. It examines the way in which schools live and work with these changes, and the policies which result from them. The book examines policy making at each level, from perspectives both inside and outside the state bureaucracy. It has a particular focus on social justice. Both undergraduate and postgraduate students will find that this book enables them to understand the reasoning behind the changes they are expected to implement. It will help to prepare them to confront an uncertain educational world, whilst still retaining their enthusiasm for education.
