TV Living Jan 13 2021 Presents the findings of a British Film Institute project in which 500 participants completed detailed questionnaire-diaries over a five-year period, writing on their lives, their television watching and the relationship between the two. The authors use this extensive survey to explore some of the most fundamental questions in media and cultural studies, focusing on issues of gender, identity, the impact of new technologies, and the impact of viewers' own changing ideas and experiences. A unique study of contemporary TV audience behaviour and attitudes, TV Living offers an insight into the complex relationship between mass media and people's lives today.

Investigating 'Charmed'* Sep 20 2021 In 1998, the series "Charmed", the story created by Constance M. Burge of three sisters who discover that they are powerful witches, first aired on the WB network. The series ran for eight series and into top-rating DVDs, and has established a continuing presence as cult TV. The world of "Charmed" is distinctively one of female solidarity, with sisters Piper, Prudence, Phoebe and, with the death of Pru, half-sister Paige making up the 'power of three'. In their crusade against the demonic population of their home city of San Francisco, the Halliwell sisters have also inheri.

Primary and Secondary Education During Covid-19 Sep 08 2020 This open access edited volume is a comparative effort to discern the short-term educational impact of the covid-19 pandemic on students, teachers and systems in Brazil, Chile, Finland, Japan, Mexico, Norway, Portugal, Russia, Singapore, Spain, South Africa, the United Kingdom and the United States. One of the first academic comparative studies of the educational impact of the pandemic, the book explains how the interruption of in person instruction and the variable efficacy of alternative forms of education caused learning loss and disengagement with learning, especially for disadvantaged students. Other direct and indirect impacts of the pandemic diminished the ability of families to support children and youth in their education. For students, as well as for teachers and school staff, these included the economic shocks experienced by families, in some cases leading to food insecurity and in many more causing stress and anxiety and impacting mental health. Opportunity to learn was also diminished by the shocks and trauma experienced by those with a close relative infected by the virus, and by the constrains on learning resulting from students having to learn at home, where the demands of schoolwork had to be negotiated with other family necessities, often sharing limited space. Furthermore, the prolonged stress caused by the uncertainty over the resolution of the pandemic and resulting from the knowledge that anyone could be infected and potentially lose their lives, created a traumatic context for many that undermined the necessary focus and dedication to schoolwork. These individual effects were reinforced by community effects, particularly for students and teachers living in communities where the multifaceted negative impacts resulting from the pandemic were pervasive. This is an open access book.

Periodismo: instrucciones de uso Jan 05 2023 Los desafíos que se presentan en Periodismo: Instrucciones de uso. Ensayos sobre una profesión en crisis son múltiples. ¿Cómo contar una noticia de manera atractiva y que se destaque entre el aluvión de información que se genera en la era digital? ¿Se puede hacer realmente una buena investigación periodística sin importar a quién afecte en un medio comercial? ¿Es posible introducir variantes radicales y creativas en la narración de noticias y crónicas? ¿Cómo lograr que la publicidad privada u oficial no funcione como condicionante? ¿Se puede desafiar a las audiencias en lugar de intentar complacerlas? ¿Cómo evitar que el periodismo político se transforme en un mero relato policial? ¿Puede sobrevivir el periodismo de calidad en el tiempo de los freelancers? ¿Cómo buscar caminos nuevos e independientes? Los autores que participan en este libro tienen ideas e historias profesionales diferentes. Aportan respuestas y siembran nuevas preguntas. Estoy seguro de que sus escritos se convertirán en referencias ineludibles a la hora de repensar el periodismo, porque todos ellos coinciden en que es posible hacerlo bien.

Uses of Television* Aug 08 2020 John Hartley's new book defends the place of television in our lives, suggesting that it reunites government, education and media to create a new kind of cultural teaching which communicates across social and geographical boundaries.

Forest Inventory* Apr 15 2021 This book has been developed as a forest inventory textbook for students and could also serve as a handbook for practical foresters. We have set out to keep the mathematics in the book at a fairly non-technical level, and therefore, although we deal with many issues that include highly sophisticated methodology, we try to present first and foremost the ideas behind them. For foresters who need more details, references are given to more advanced scientific papers and books in the fields of statistics and biometrics. Forest inventory books deal mostly with sampling and measurement issues, as found here in section I, but since forest inventories in many countries involve much more than this, we have also included material on forestry applications. Most applications nowadays involve remote sensing technology of some sort, so that section II deals mostly with the use of remote sensing material for this purpose. Section III deals with national inventories carried out in different parts of world, and section IV is an attempt to outline some future possibilities of forest inventory methodologies. Mujeres pensantes* Mar 27 2022 «Plagados de referentes literarios, artísticos e historicistas, estos catorce cuentos parten desde la más insípida realidad, desde lo aparentemente trivial, y nos van sujetando a múltiples connotaciones a medida que la historia avanza hacia su desenlace; textos donde el absurdo juega un papel fundamental, al punto de llegar a deformarnos algunas situaciones, o de mostrarnos a través de lo risible esas carencias humanas que en realidad están más bien cercanas al llanto o a lo trágico. Con estirpe de buen cuentista, Félix Sánchez nos entreteje estos relatos cercanos a la parodia y al sarcasmo; el humor y el tono jocoso de las anécdotas contrasta notablemente con los escenarios que sobrecogen y desgarran a estos individuos que parecen desconocer (o prefieren hacerse los desentendidos) el origen de todas sus desgracias. Mujeres pensantes se transfigura en una metáfora del país, de las tantas y tantas irrealidades mágicas a las que está sometido el cubano en su diario hacer y deshacer. Si bien algunos narradores gustan de decir que escribir es el arte de mentir, yo diría que para el autor de Mujeres

LA IMAGEN TELE Nov 03 2022 Fotografía, cine, televisión, video y multimedia dibujan una trayectoria estética y tecnológica que va de la imagen fílmica a la electrónica, de la analógica a la digital, de la imagen racional, centrada y autónoma de la fotografía y el cine a la imagen compulsiva, descentrada, imperfecta y caótica de la televisión y el video. Tecno-estéticas, Neo-usos y Glocalidades en la sociedad digital son los temas divididos en tres capítulos que se deslizan por este texto en el que la imagen tele -visible en el universo de las pantallas- es entendida como aquella transmitida (tele)mediáticamente y que conjuga comunicación visual, telecomunicación e informática. No en vano, cine, televisión, video, videoradio, son ahora las nuevas tecnologías que conviven en el abigarrado universo de la comunicación audiovisual de Internet. Con ellas asistimos a una complejidad de relatos (vuelta a la oralidad, a la lectura y la escritura) que permea hoy la cotidianidad y se expresa a través de multilenguajes en el mundo cibernético (Web, blogs, redes sociales) en una especie de idiolecto que des-estructura las gramáticas convencionales.

Netflix and the Re-invention of Television Feb 23 2022 This book deals with the various ways Netflix reconceptualises television as part of the process of TV IV. As television continues to undergo a myriad of significant changes, Netflix has proven itself to be the dominant force in this development, simultaneously driving a number of these changes and challenging television's existing institutional structures. This comprehensive study explores the pre-history of Netflix, the role of binge-watching in its organisation and marketing, and Netflix's position as a transnational broadcaster. It also examines different concepts of control and the role these play in the history of ancillary technologies, from the remote control to binge-watching as Netflix's iteration of giving control to the viewers. By focusing on Netflix's relationship with the linear television schedule, its negotiations of quality and marketing, as well as the way Netflix integrates into national media systems, Netflix and the Re-invention of Television illuminates the importance of Netflix's role within the processes of TV IV.

The Politics of Black Joy* Jun 17 2021 During the antebellum period, slave owners weaponized southern Black joy to argue for enslavement, propagating images of “happy darkies.” In contrast, abolitionists wielded sorrow by emphasizing racial oppression. Both arguments were so effective that a political uneasiness on the subject still lingers. In The Politics of Black Joy, Lindsey Stewart wades into these uncomfortable waters by analyzing Zora Neale Hurston’s uses of the concept of Black southern joy. Stewart develops Hurston’s contributions to political theory and philosophy of race by introducing the politics of joy as a refusal of neo-abolitionism, a political tradition that reduces southern Black life to tragedy or social death. To develop the politics of joy, Stewart draws upon Zora Neale Hurston’s essays, Beyoncé’s Lemonade, and figures across several disciplines including Frederick Douglass, W. E. B. Du Bois, Toni Morrison, Angela Davis, Saidiya Hartman, Imani Perry, Eddie Glaude, and Audra Simpson. The politics of joy offers insights that are crucial for forming needed new paths in our current moment. For those interested in examining popular conceptions of Black political agency at the intersection of geography, gender, class, and Black spirituality, The Politics of Black Joy is essential British Television Jan 01 2020 Peter Graham Scott joined BBC-TV in 1952 as a young producer-trainee. Since then he has been part of every major development in the television medium, including the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II, the birth and growth of commercial TV, special broadcasts for schools, the second BBC channel, the well-timed introduction of color in time for live shots from the moon, the utterly different Channel Four, and Channel Five. During the early years of his career Scott directed over 40 original live dramas, in addition to episodes of Danger Man, The Prisoner and The Avengers. Scott's career reflects the rapid development of British television over four decades. He tells his story with insight, wit and thorough technical knowledge. Along the way he shares anecdotes about stars and their humble beginnings--Judi Dench, Glenda Jackson, Patrick McGoochan, Diana Rigg, Michael Gambon and Jane Seymour--as well as tales of encounters with such talents as John Gielgud, Anthony Hopkins, Peter Sellers, Donald Pleasence, Dylan Thomas, and Brendan Behan. The author concludes his memoir with some perceptive thoughts on world television's past--and future.

Guerrilla TV Oct 10 2020 Guerrilla TV shows how to make high quality programs at budget levels which were previously though impossible. It gives an insight into the real world of television program making today - with plenty of examples.
